Policy aims

We believe that a strong Relationship, Sex and Health Education (RSHE) curriculum is important to help our pupils develop into well-rounded members of society, who can make a positive contribution to their community. Our RSHE curriculum is synonymous with our mission statement.

Why is RSHE curriculum important for our children?

The Sex Education Forum posits the question 'what is the key learning needed to ensure my pupils can be safe, healthy and enjoying fulfilling relationships?' this belief is a foundation stone for a functional, inclusive and personalised RSHE curriculum; not simply for all children but for our children. The curriculum should maximise opportunities to prepare children for the future, adulthood and transition, in line the SEN Code of Practice as well as be a tool for meeting their EHCP needs, giving them a safe space to experience change, failure and help them to find out what they like, dislike and who they are becoming.

Our children should be able to experience the real world, culture and other people and plunge into a world of ore and wonder.

Internal experiences are just as vital, pupils should be able to maximises their potential and have opportunities to succeed away from academia. In turn it is anticipated that progress can be felt by the young people, building confidence and self-esteem, raise intrinsic expectations, gives children ownership of their outcomes and progress, promotes own responsibility, promotes an understanding of cause and effect, promotes discussion and appreciation of justice, fairness and British values.

To maximise the effectiveness of these values; which we believe are core to the RSHE curriculum, this should become a whole school approach, it should involve parents, in turn raising their aspirations for their young people and vitally raise the expectations of staff towards pupils futures.

Equality and Diversity

RSHE is provided to all young people and provision is made to allow all young people to access the curriculum. Young people are encouraged to follow learning and discussions which suit their interests, skills and strengths with the absence of stereotypes. All young people are provided with the same opportunities and diversity is celebrated on an individual and whole school basis. Stereotyping of any kind in RSHE is addressed through the RSHE programme using national strategies; for example the promotion of underrepresented groups and challenging of rigid thinking by ASC aware staff members to the young people of Meadows View School and their wider support networks.

1. Legal framework

1.1. This policy has due regard to legislation and statutory guidance, including, but not limited to the following:

- Education Act 1996
- Education Act 2002
- Children and Social Work Act 2017
- DfE (2021) 'Keeping children safe in education' (KCSIE)
- DfE (2020) 'Relationships and sex education (RSHE) and health education'

1.2. This policy will be followed in conjunction with the following school policies and procedures:

- SMSC policy
- Careers Education, Information, Advice and Guidance Policy

2.0 Context of the school

Meadows View School is an Educational Establishment that caters for students and young people aged from 4-11. All students attending the school have an Autism diagnosis or presentation and are working significantly below their age-related expectations. Educational, Health and Care plans are in place to inform the provision planning to ensure that students are able to progress towards and meet their highly individualised and educational goals. In addition to their autism diagnosis, many students also have additional associated diagnosis', or medical considerations, such as Attention Deficit Disorder (ADHD) or Epilepsy.

Students attending Meadows View School are grouped into one of three different pathways, based on their needs, EHCP targets and levels of attainment. These are called the Bumblebee , Butterfly and Dragonfly Pathways.

Bumblebee and Butterfly are our informal/semi-formal pathways and allow our students to explore their sense of self. These programmes are designed to allow pupils to gain a better understanding of their individualised communication / sensory profiles, through a sensory play/ intensive interaction approach. Students on this pathway, will be supported in meeting targets against their ECHP, but also develop a greater sense of self through an EYFS style curriculum based on Development matters and in line with the Equals schemes of learning.

Our formal pathway – Dragonfly, is designed for students working at a higher cognitive level, this pathway contains links to the National Curriculum.

In addition to pathways Bumblebee , Butterfly and Dragonfly, all students will access an enhanced Enrichment program, where they will have access to the local community which form an integral part of their education and preparedness for adulthood. The enrichment program allows students to build on their own independence through travel training, shopping and food preparation.

A scheme of learning around Careers has also been established to support students in understanding the different roles in society and build job aspirations in those students that may go on to find employment. PSHE, RSE and RE will be delivered to students at an appropriate level to their educational needs and levels of understanding.

3.0 Key roles and responsibilities

The governing board has overall responsibility for the implementation of the school's RSHE Policy.

The governing board has overall responsibility for ensuring that the RSHE Policy, as written, does not discriminate on any grounds, including but not limited to age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation.

The headteacher has overall responsibility for reviewing the RSHE Policy annually.

The headteacher has responsibility for handling complaints regarding this policy, as outlined in the school's Complaints Procedures Policy.

The headteacher will be responsible for the day-to-day implementation and management of the RSHE Policy.

The Quality of education lead is responsible for liaising with other staff and professional agencies to devise a suitable scheme of work to ensure a comprehensive RSHE education that achieves the aims laid out in this policy.

The school will consult with parents to ensure that the RSHE and relationships education elements of the RSHE curriculum reflect the needs and sensibilities of the wider school community.

The school will work with parents throughout the year and will ensure that parents are routinely kept informed about their right to withdraw their children from sex education (but not relationships or health education).

The school ensures that pupils are also involved in the creation of this policy through termly feedback, suggestion forms and/or class discussions led by the school council

4. Aims of the RSHE curriculum: Statutory guidance

In Key Stage 1 and 2 we teach Relationships education adhering to the statutory guidance as set out by the Department of Education and the Independent School Standards. Pupils will learn to do the following:

- Understand what constitutes a healthy lifestyle; mentally and physically.
- Consent.
- Understand how to stay safe and behave online.
- Develop responsibility and independence within school which they will take forward into society in their working lives.
- Respect other people, in particular, learning to respect the different cultural/ethnic/religious/gendered viewpoints of others in our school community and the wider world.
- Understand what constitutes 'socially acceptable' behaviour at school and in society.
- Be a constructive member of society.
- Understand democracy.
- Understand what healthy and respectful relationships are.

- Understand what respectful behaviour looks like.
- Develop self-confidence, self-esteem and self-worth.
- Make positive, informed choices as they make their way through life.
- Understand that they have a right to speak up about issues or events, and to respect other's right to do the same.
- Understand that sexual violence and harassment in any form is always wrong.

5. Delivery of RSHE

RSHE is not just learning about growing up, changes and reproduction. It is also about enabling children and young people to make and maintain healthy relationships with others, to understand about human sexuality, and to feel good about themselves and the choices they make. Information will be delivered in an accepting and honest way, which enables young people to contribute, and as deemed stage –appropriate.

- 5.1. A range of teaching and learning styles are used to teach RSHE.
- 5.2. Teaching is pupil-led with an emphasis on active learning techniques such as discussion and group work.
- 5.3. Class ground rules regarding discussions are put in place to ensure a safe, supportive and positive learning environment. Examples of discussion guidelines include rules such as:
 - No derogatory language.
 - Use volume control suitable for the learning environment.
 - Promote turn taking.
 - Show respect for another's views, even when disagreeing with them.
 - Keep comments subject-specific, as opposed to personal to gain pupil voice.
- 5.4. Pupils learn research and study techniques and can engage in investigations and problem-solving activities.
- 5.5. All pupils are encouraged to take part in charity work and volunteering, as well as organising school events such as form time assemblies and open evenings /days.
- 5.6. The school will use visiting speakers, such as health workers and the police, to broaden the curriculum and share their real-life experiences, where national pandemic guideline allow. Any such speakers are closely monitored by the class teacher who will use their professional judgement to end a speech if they consider it to contravene any of the aims of this policy or the values of our school.

- 5.7. The school consults with the local community on matters related to RSHE to ensure that local issues are covered in lessons. Local Education Authority safeguarding agendas will also be delivered through this learning time.
- 5.8. Pupils' questions, unless inappropriate, are answered respectfully by teachers.

6. Safeguarding, reports of abuse and confidentiality

- 6.1. All staff are aware of what constitutes peer-on-peer abuse. This is likely to include, but may not be limited to, the following:
- Bullying (including cyberbullying).
 - Physical abuse, e.g. hitting, kicking, hair pulling.
 - Sexual violence, e.g. rape, assault by penetration and sexual assault.
 - Sexual harassment, e.g. sexual comments, online sexual harassment, jokes. These may be stand-alone or part of a broader pattern of abuse.
 - Up skirting (taking a picture under a person's clothes without their awareness, with the intention of viewing their genitals or buttocks to obtain sexual gratification, or cause humiliation, distress or harm).
 - Sexting
 - Initiation/hazing type violence and rituals.
- 6.2. All staff are aware of indicators, which may signal that children are at risk from, or are involved with serious violent crime. These may include:
- Increased absence from school, changes in friendships/relationships with older individuals or groups, a significant decline in performance.
 - Signs of self-harm or a significant change in wellbeing.
 - Signs of assault or unexplained injuries.
 - New possessions or unexplained gifts could indicate that children have been approached by, or are involved with, individuals associated with criminal networks or gangs.
- 6.3. All staff are aware of the associated risks surrounding pupils' involvement in serious crime, and understand measures in place to manage these.
- 6.4. If staff have concerns regarding a child who may be at risk of or suffering from 'honour-based' abuse (HBA) including forced marriage, they will speak to the DSL (or deputies). Where appropriate, they will activate local safeguarding procedures. As highlighted with section 74 of the Serious Crime Act 2015, in cases where FGM appears to have been carried out, teachers must personally report this to the police.

- 6.5. Staff are aware of KCSIE advice concerning what to do if a pupil informs them that they are being abused or neglected or are witnessing abuse. Staff are also aware of the appropriate levels of confidentiality. This means only involving those deemed necessary, such as the DSL (or deputy) and children's social care. Staff must never promise a child that they will not tell anyone about a report of abuse, as this ultimately may not be in the best interests of the child.
- 6.6. The school will involve the DSL (or deputy) in anything related to safeguarding. They can potentially provide knowledge of trusted, high quality local resources, links to the police and other agencies, and the knowledge of local issues that may be appropriate to address in lessons.
- 6.7. Every lesson reinforces that, if pupils have any sensitive/personal issues or wish to talk about any of the issues raised in the lesson; they are aware of how to raise concerns or make reports to their RSHE teacher or another member of staff about this, and how this will be handled. This also includes processes when they have concerns about a friend or peer.
- 6.8. The school invites external agencies to support the teaching of safeguarding-related subjects, where national pandemic guideline allow – they must agree in advance of the session how the external visitor will deal with safeguarding reports.
- 6.9. The school is aware that, when teaching new subjects, topics including self-harm and suicide may be raised by pupils. Teachers recognise the risks of encouraging or making suicide seem a more viable options for pupils, and avoid material being instructive rather than preventative. To prevent this, teachers avoid giving instructions or methods of self-harm or suicide and the use of emotive language, videos or images.

7. Parents right to withdraw

Parents' have the right to withdraw their children from the [non-statutory/non-science] components of RSHE up until 3 terms before the pupil turns 16 years old. At this point if the pupil chooses to be part of these non-statutory/non-science] then Meadows View School will accommodate this.

Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing and addressed to the headteacher a week before the lesson. A copy of withdrawal requests will be placed in the pupil's educational record. The headteacher will discuss the request with parents and take appropriate action.

Alternative work will be given to pupils who are withdrawn from RSHE.

8. Tailoring RSHE

- 8.1. The school uses discussions and other activities during initial RSHE lessons to ascertain 'where pupils are' in terms of their knowledge and understanding of various subjects. The teaching programme will then be adjusted to reflect the composition of the class with regards to this.
- 8.2. Teaching considers the ability, age, readiness and cultural backgrounds of all young people in the class and will be tailored accordingly.
- 8.3. Adaptations are made for those for whom English is a second language to ensure that all pupils can fully access RSHE educational provision.
- 8.4. All pupils with SEND receive RSHE education, with content and delivery tailored to meet their individual needs.
- 8.5. The school will deliver relationships and health education as part of its timetabled RSHE programme.

- 10.2. Lessons are planned to ensure pupils of differing abilities, including the most able, are suitably challenged. Teaching is assessed, identifying where pupils need extra support or intervention.
